Vice-President Marshall has been quoted as saying that the national prohibition amendment will not pass. Thomas has been a pretty good guesser heretofore.

Theodore Roosevelt, ex-president of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt the bulldozer, the brute, the all-wise and never mistaken, the lawless, the man who would sacrifice everything on earth to satisfy his insatiable ambition, returned to the United States only a few days ago and is already roaring like a mad bull at everything and everybody not in strict accord with his ideas. How long, O Lord, how long?

Won't somebody, please, give Bill Nelson a little stock in the Met.
